O’CALLAGHAN DAVENPORT

DAY 3 | SEP 30
DUBLIN

Today visit the Guinness Storehouse in the morning. The Guinness Experience is a dramatic story that begins over 250 years ago and ends in Gravity, the sky bar, where you will enjoy a pint of Guinness. As you walk through the Storehouse museum, you’ll discover what goes into making the Black Stuff—the ingredients, the process, the passion. You will have time for shopping at the Storehouse. You will be driven back to the hotel and the balance of the day is at leisure.

MEAL(S): BREAKFAST

DAY 4 | OCT 1
NEWGRANGE

Today, make a day trip to Newgrange. The Boyne Valley in County Meath was the cradle of Irish civilization and supported a sophisticated society in Neolithic times. Witness this when you stop at the Bru-na-Boinne Centre to see the extensive exhibition that includes a full-scale replica of the chamber at Newgrange as well as a full model of one of the smaller tombs at Knowth. Enjoy a visit to one of these tombs (to be advised). Come back to Dublin in the afternoon.

MEAL(S): BREAKFAST

DUBLIN

Your first stop today will be the monastic ruins of Glendalough. Established by St. Kevin in the 6th Century, its ruined churches are scattered around two lakes. One of Europe’s finest examples of Round Tower architecture can be found here, as well as a Cathedral, stone churches and decorated crosses. Visit then the beautiful 18th century Powerscourt Gardens. The gardens were begun by Richard Wingfield, Viscount Powerscourt, in the 1740s. It is a superb blend of formal gardens, sweeping terraces, statuary and ornamental lakes together with secret hollows, rambling walks, walled gardens and over 200 variations of trees and shrubs. Come back to Dublin in the afternoon. Spend the evening at Johnnie Fox’s, one of Ireland’s highest pubs, for a traditional Irish Night including dinner and live entertainment.

MEAL(S): BREAKFAST AND DINNER
